Francis, A New World Leader

Jorge Mario Bergoglio, archbishop of Buenos Aires, is the first pope from the Americas. He has taken the name Francis after St. Francis of Assisi. He worked and lived among the poor and brings hope to all the world.

“ Today amid so much darkness we need to see the light of hope and to be men and women who bring hope to others,” he said. “To protect every man and every woman, to look upon them with tenderness and love, is to open up a horizon of hope, it is to let a shaft of light break through the heavy clouds.”

Sebastian Gomes of Perth had the honour of delivering the first reading during Pope Francis’s inaugural mass.
