We Remember

On November 11, Canadians will pause to remember all Veterans, to reflect upon their contributions and sacrifices, and to pay tribute to those who died protecting the values and freedoms we enjoy today. Daily, members of the Canadian Forces put their lives at risk, often leaving their families and homes behind, to courageously and selflessly serve in our nation's military, defending Canada's values and contributing to international peace and security. They set a strong example for Canadian youth and we recognize and remember their sacrifices.

Congratulations
